Report by Students

On the 13 of September, 2025, at PVG COETM, a TEDx event was held, propagating the theme – Drishti: How our perspective shapes reality. The event was conducted from 12:30 pm to 10:30 pm, consisting of 7 enlightening talks by the speakers, 6 distinct workshops, 2 filler performances, curated meals situated throughout, and the distribution of goodies to all the partakers of the event.

The event began with registration of the attendees, and they were provided with passports and badges as their template for the event as they moved forward to a delightful brunch. The first session commenced at 2:30 pm with an evocative Ganesh Vandana, followed by the TED video. The anchors welcomed the guests and dignitaries, and introduced the theme of the event.

The first session commenced with three enlightening talks by the speakers – Mr. Hruitvik Ambekar, Dr. Bhooshan Kelkar, and Mr. Kedar Patankar, respectively. The speakers were warmly felicitated for their support, by the respective dignitaries. At 4:00 pm, the attendees were guided to their respective workshops. The 6 workshops were – Kombucha making workshop, Tote bag painting workshop, Coaster painting workshop, Soap making workshop, Dance workshop, and Fun & Games workshop. After a creative and refreshing session, the attendees were provided with evening tea and snacks.

The second session began with an exhilarant musical performance by the band – 8 Ball Fools. Afterwards, there were two wonderful talks by the speakers – Ms. Surabhi Hande, and Prof. Dr. Aditya Abhyankar. The band and the speakers were felicitated by the Licensee and the dignitaries, respectively.

The third session was opened with an exquisite veena performance by the young veena artist, Sumatindra Korti. Thereafter, there were two elucidative talks by the speakers – Mr. Manveer Singh Chabda, and Major L.S. Chowdhary. A video was played of the speaker – IPS Archit Chandak, who, unfortunately, could not make it to the event due to commitments. Mr. Korti, and the speakers were felicitated by the respective dignitaries.

The event concluded with acknowledgements by the Faculty Co-ordinator, the Directors, and the Principal of PVG COETM as well as the Licensee, Co-Organizer, and Treasurer of TEDxPVGCOET. Subsequently, the attendees were ushered to a hearty dinner, and were presented with the goodies. Thus, TEDxPVGCOET succeeded in hosting a grand celebration of ideas, community, and vision via this event, tying people and perspectives together.
